WHY HOUSTON IS CALLED ROCKETS: Basketball fans in San Diego were asked to submit their suggestion for a nickname in a contest. More than 1,000 different names were submitted in the 10,000 entries to "Name the Team". After careful deliberation, a group of the city's leading citizens selected the nickname "Rockets" because it kept with the city's theme of a "City in Motion" while reflecting the tremendous growth of the space-age industries in San Diego.

TOD LEIWEKEPresident

Tod Leiweke begins his first season as President of the Houston Rockets. Leiweke, who began his duties with the Rockets on Sept. 14, 1993, has been the PGA TOUR's Vice President for Marketing since Sept. 14, 1991. He was in charge of corporate sponsorships and managing field staff operations. The tour is regarded as one of the most prestigious and largest sponsorship organizations in the world.

The 33-year-old Leiweke brings a strong NBA background into his job with the Rockets. He was Vice President of Marketing and Broadcasting for the Golden State Warriors and was part of the management team that turned that franchise around.

During Leiweke's tenure season ticket sales went from 2,900 in 1987 to over 13,000 in 1990--and for the first time the Warriors sold out every regular-season home game in 1989-90. Starting in March 1989 the Warriors have sold out 187 consecutive regular-season games.

Leiweke oversaw a staff of 24 while with the Warriors, and was responsible for the franchise's marketing, broadcasting, ticket sales, promotions, game operations and community relations efforts. Golden State's television exposure grew from 20 televised games in 1986-87 to 71 in 1990-91. The organization became more actively involved in community relations, including a program he instituted to help Bay Area high school sports programs. He was also elected to an NBA advisory board by his peers.

Before joining the Warriors, Leiweke was a partner in Leiweke & Company, a Kansas City-based consulting firm with two of his brothers (Tim is in his third season as president of the Denver Nuggets). The family owned company assisted several corporate sponsors and media organizations.

Leiweke's background also includes stints in the Major Indoor Soccer League. He joined the Kansas City Comets in 1981 and continued with the New York Arrows the following year. His promotional efforts led him to become the general manager of the Arrows in 1983. He enjoys running and has participated in the San Francisco Marathon three of the last four years. Tod is married (wife Tara) and they have a son Tyler (18 months).

THE SUMMIT

The Houston Rockets have called The Summit home since the building first opened in 1975. The Summit, which seats 16,279 for Rockets' games and better than 17,000 for other events, is located on a seven-acre site north of the Southwest Freeway, between Edloe and Timmons streets—approximately four miles from downtown.

Houston has compiled a 495-242 (.672) record in 18 seasons (30-22 in the playoffs) since the first game was played on Nov. 2, 1975 vs Milwaukee—a 104-89 Houston win. The Rockets have sold out 183 of the last 323 home dates including exhibitions and playoffs. Houston has drawn better than 600,000 for eight of the last nine seasons (including playoffs), averaging 15,000 per game. The Rockets top season was 1987-88 when they sold out every exhibition, regular-season and playoff game.

The Rockets will call The Summit home through the year 2,003 after signing a seven-year extension on their lease in October 1988. The Rockets also have exclusive control of the signage in the arena, television production of Rockets' games, program advertising and sales.

The site was donated to the City of Houston by Greenway Plaza, Kenneth Schnitzer, Chairman of the Board. Construction of The Summit began in late 1973 following approval by the Houston City Council in October that year. Construction was financed by the sale of $18 million of first mortgage revenue bonds. Under terms of a 30-year contract with the city, the operator of The Summit is the Arena Operating Company, Mike McGee, president.

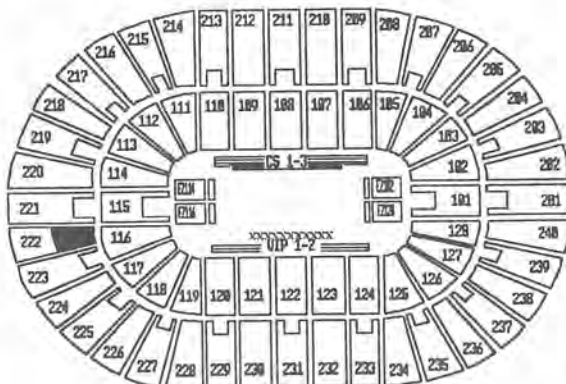

The building, 427-feet long by 312-feet wide, offers unobstructed viewing from seats on two major levels and from 20 plush, private Summit suites located above the upper promenade level. Maximum distance of any spectator from the arena floor is 128 feet.

Some other features of the building, which has more than two million patrons attend 175 events annually, include two 20-feet wide by 15-feet high TelScreens suspended at each end of the arena; 55 Sony television monitors located throughout the concourse so patrons will not miss anything going on inside the arena; two 100-foot auxiliary scoreboards added in 1988 to the fascia at midcourt (on both sides)—which also has message boards to keep patrons up-to-date on happenings in the NBA.

There are 12 hotels and 25 restaurants with a two-mile radius of the building. The Summit is within 40 minutes of Houston's two major airports, Houston Intercontinental and William P. Hobby.

ROCKETS ON THE AIR

One of professional sports most complete broadcast packages is enjoyed by the Houston Rockets. All games are broadcast on the Rockets' 12-station radio network, with KTRH-740 AM serving as the flagship station; all the games are also broadcast in Spanish on KXYZ-1320 AM. The Rockets distribute their radio broadcasts on satellite via the Texas State Network, which also makes it possible to send special programming to all of the affiliates which cover a five-state area including Texas, Oklahoma, Arkansas, Louisiana and Mississippi. A weekly Rocket radio show, "Inside the Rockets" (hosted by Jim Foley) is heard one hour before tipoff on weekend games featuring interviews with players and coaches from around the NBA. Head Coach Rudy Tomjanovich can be heard weekly on KTRH Radio (740 AM).

Road games are telecast by KTXH Paramount 20 and select home games are cablecast by Home Sports Entertainment (HSE). KTXH has broadcast Rockets games for 11 seasons.

As part of the NBA television package, the Rockets are scheduled for up to 10 appearances in 1993-94. Houston will tip-off NBC's coverage with a Christmas Day game at Phoenix (1:30 PM CST). The Rockets have three other possible NBC dates—April 9 vs San Antonio, April 16 at Seattle and April 24 vs Denver. Houston will be on TNT six times: Jan. 10 at Orlando, Feb. 24 vs New York, March 10 vs Seattle, March 27 at Phoenix, April 7 vs Golden State and April 19 at San Antonio. This is the most scheduled national appearances since 1986-87 when the Rockets were on 15 times (11 TBS, 4 CBS). Since 1982-83 Houston has been on national TV 70 times during the regular season (TNT 9, NBC 1, TBS 36, CBS 12, ESPN 6, USA 6).

THE RADIO TEAM

Gene Peterson, who is entering his 19th season as Voice of the Rockets, will be joined on all broadcasts for a seventh straight year by Rockets' Director of Communications, Jim Foley.

Peterson joined the Rockets in 1975 and broadcast 1,394 regular season and 95 playoff games without a miss before missing the first two months of 1992-93 after suffering a heart attack. Peterson has fully recovered and has started a new streak. The Albert Lea, MN, native studied broadcasting at Brown Institute in Minneapolis. After Air Force duty he began his radio career at WECL, Eau Claire, WI. He also worked at KOB, Albuquerque, NM; KCMO, Kansas City, MO; and KPRC, Houston, before joining the Rockets. Gene and his wife, Marsha, reside in Kingwood—they have two sons, Todd, 30, and Paul, 21, plus one daughter, Jennifer, 27. One of the top golfers in the broadcast ranks, the Houston Irish Open Tournament has borne his name for the last six years despite his Scandinavian background.

Foley, who is beginning his 25th NBA season (21 Houston, 3 Milwaukee), was the Rockets' Director of Public Relations for 15 years after serving in that position three years with the Milwaukee Bucks. He was promoted to Director of Communications in August, 1987. The Marquette University graduate comes from LaSalle, IL. Following school, he served as an officer in the Navy for four years, and began his public relations career with the New York Central Railroad in Chicago. He was named Sports Information Director in 1965 at Marquette where he worked for four years before joining the NBA Bucks in 1969. He is active in area Irish activities, including Houston's annual St. Patrick's Day Parade—he was the Grand Marshall in 1989. He is also an avid golfer. He and his wife Carolyn reside in Houston.

Alex Lopez-Negrete is in his sixth season of describing Rockets' action in Spanish on KXYZ (1320 AM). Lopez-Negrete, who was born in Houston, raised and educated in Mexico City, is president of Lopez-Negrete Communications. Alex started his professional career in the U.S. by representing the Grupo Novedades de publicaciones (the largest publishing conglomerate in Mexico) in the Southwest. He also served as international/Mexico marketing counsel for some of Houston's largest advertising agencies, real estate developers and retailers before opening his own business. Alex and his wife Cathy reside in Missouri City—they have one daughter (Michelle) and son (Patrick).

THE TV TEAM

Bill Worrell and Calvin Murphy will team up to describe all the Rockets' action in 1993-94. Worrell will handle all play-by-play duties and Murphy will be the color commentator on all telecasts; with Bruce Gietzen handling anchor chores in the studio on KTXH.

Worrell is a graduate of Lamar High and University of Houston where he played varsity baseball. He began his broadcast career at Houston's KRPC-TV 2 in 1970, and was that station's Sports Director from 1974 through 1980. He has been HSE's Sports Director since it began operation in 1982. He has done play-by-play not only for the Rockets but also for the Astros, and Oilers—plus college football and basketball. He has been involved with Rockets' telecasts on Channel 20 and HSE for the last eight seasons after having done play-by-play on Rockets' telecasts for KHTV-39 in 1980-81 and 1981-82. A bachelor, he also is one of the fine golfers associated with the Rockets.

This is Murphy's fourth year as color commentator on KTXH-TV 20, and his third on HSE. He handled interviews at halftime and postgame for HSE, 1988-90. He also handles community relations work (for further info, see his biography on page 206).

BOOSTER

Height: 6 Antennae
Weight: Some things are personal
Age: 13 Boostron years
Shoe Size: 22
Favorite TV Show: Star Trek
Favorite Actor: Mr. Spock
Favorite Book: Cosmos
Favorite Sports: Basketball
Favorite Movie: Aliens
Favorite Food: Milky Way bars

Booster is the most dynamic, acrobatic, energetic, and of course the coolest alien to ever set foot on the face of the Earth. Just ask him and he'll tell you so (by nodding, of course).

Most everyone knows that Booster is from Boostron, but how he got to Houston is not as widely known. Our scouts, who search high and low for the best players in the land, got a tip on Booster, who at the time was playing a game similar to basketball at UB (University of Boostron) on his native planet.

After viewing Booster in action (through the mind-melding method of course -- videotape is obsolete on Boostron), the scouts invited him down for an up-close look. Once arriving in Houston, Booster soon discovered that the Earth's gravitational pull severely limited his abilities.

Booster found he couldn't jump as high, he couldn't shoot as accurately, he couldn't run as fast and worst of all, he couldn't talk. But who needs to talk when you can move like Booster does. Fans enjoyed his dancing, antics and slam dunks so much that the team adopted him as its mascot in 1989 and Booster has been entertaining Summit crowds and making appearances in the community ever since.

Booster still dreams of his high flyin' Boostron days and at times will provide us with a glimpse of these dreams -- that's when Turbo Booster takes the stage. Mouths drop in amazement, the oohs and aahs begin and in true Boostron form, Turbo does things no other mascot would even think of trying.

Booster participated in the Professional Mascot Olympics (July 1993) and has been invited to other arenas to perform and entertain. During the 1992-93 season, he made more than 250 appearances at local schools, malls, hospitals, fundraisers and parades. Booster and Turbo both perform at Rockets' home games and have been known to crash an occasional party.

COACHES

RUDY TOMJANOVICHHead Coach

Head Coach: Feb. 18, 1992 to present

Birth Date: Nov. 24, 1948 at Hamtramck, MI

High School: Hamtramck

College: Michigan '70

Drafted by San Diego Rockets, 1st round, 1970 (2nd pick overall)

NBA Career: 1970-81 with Rockets

NBA All-Star: 1974, 1975, 1976, 1977, 1979 (starter)

Retired as a player Oct. 2, 1981; Number (#45) was retired on Jan. 28, 1982

Rockets' scout 1981-83; Rockets' assistant coach 1983-92

Wife: Sophie

Daughters: Nicole (20), Melissa (17); Son: Rudy III (10)

Head Coach Rudy Tomjanovich, who stresses defense, discipline and hustle, is the architect of the Rockets' climb from a lottery team to a championship contender.

Houston enjoyed its most successful season in 1992-93. The Rockets finished the regular-season with a 55-27 record, including 24-17 on the road, won at least one game against every team and compiled an NBA best 15-game winning streak (which equals sixth-best winning streak in NBA history)--all franchise records. This success was translated into the Rockets' second Midwest Division championship (the first was in 1985-86; Houston also won the 1976-77 Central Division title). Houston advanced to the second round of the playoffs for the first time since 1987 and came within one shot of advancing to the Western Conference Finals. Defense was the key. The Rockets finished third in the NBA in points allowed (99.8, a franchise record), FG percentage defense (.457) and blocked shots (6.6).

Rudy T., who is entering his 24th consecutive season with the Rockets, received many well-deserved accolades for his work in 1992-93. He was selected The Sporting News NBA Coach of the Year (voted by coaches), came within one vote (Pat Riley 32-31) of winning the NBA's Coach of the Year honors--the closest vote in the history of the award (voted by media) and was selected the NBA's Coach of the Month for April (team went 11-2).

Tomjanovich is the ninth coach in Rockets' history (officially named on May 20, 1992; he was named interim coach Feb. 18, 1992).

The Hamtramck, MI, native is the seventh NBA head coach to guide his team to a division title in his first full season (Ed McCauley of St. Louis 1959-60, Jerry West of Lakers 1976-77, Tom Nissalke of Rockets 1976-77, Pat Riley of Lakers 1982-83, Chris Ford of Boston 1990-91 and Paul Westphal of Suns 1992-93). He has compiled a 71-41 record (.634--the best mark in franchise history) since taking over in February 1992.

This is Rudy T.'s 24th consecutive season with the organization overall (11 seasons as a player, two as a scout, nine as an assistant coach)--only Al Attles of Golden State (34 seasons) and Wes Unseld of Washington (26) can claim longer continuous service with one team as a player, coach/executive. He has been involved in all three Rockets' division championships--the leading scorer in 1976-77 (21.6) and an assistant coach in 1985-86. Tomjanovich is the 11th coach in NBA history to have his team at least 25 games over .500 in his first full season--only the third who inherited a team that was not 10 games over .500 the previous season (the other 2: Rick Adelman and Jack McMahon). The Rockets are the second team to go from the lottery to a division championship (San Antonio 1989-90). Tomjanovich is the only coach to guide a team from the lottery to a division title in his first full season.

Tomjanovich, the No. 2 selection in the 1970 draft (Bob Lanier was No. 1), spent his entire 11-season NBA career with the Rockets. He retired Oct. 2, 1981 and spent the next two seasons as a scout. He was named an assistant coach in 1983 and served in that capacity until February 1992.

"I will put all my energies into building upon the success we enjoyed in 1992-93," Tomjanovich said. "I have been committed to this team for a long time on many levels. To become head coach after 22 years with this organization.....I consider it a real honor."

Rudy T. showed a brief glimpse of what to expect over his first 30 games.

The five-time NBA All-Star forward was named interim head coach on Feb. 18, 1992 and the Rockets responded with an 11-4 record—the best start for any coach in franchise history.

"Rudy always was a disciplined player," Rockets' GM Steve Patterson said. "I think there was a difference in the tone of the basketball club after he took over. Rudy showed a great grasp of the Rockets, and he has a vision of what he wants done."

Tomjanovich is the third leading scorer in franchise history with 13,383 points (17.4 per game), trailing Calvin Murphy and Hakeem Olajuwon. He is fourth on the Rockets' all-time rebounding list with 6,198 (8.1 per game) behind Olajuwon, Moses Malone and Elvin Hayes. He averaged better than 20 points in four seasons with a high of 24.5 in 1973-74. He shot .501 from the field, and .784 from the line over the course of his playing career. He was third in FG percentage in the NBA twice (1973-75). Tomjanovich's first game as head coach was Feb. 20, 1992 vs Philadelphia, a 110-101 win in The Summit. The franchise's first game as the Houston Rockets was Oct. 14, 1971 in the Astrodome—vs Philadelphia (a 105-94 loss)—starting at forward for Houston was Rudy T., who had 28 points and 17 rebounds.

Only two numbers have been retired in the franchise's history, Murphy (23) and Tomjanovich (45).

CARROLL DAWSONAssistant Coach

"CD" begins his 14th season with the Rockets, working with his fourth head coach (Del Harris 1980-83, Bill Fitch 1983-88, Don Chaney 1988-92). Noted for his work with the forwards and centers, the Rockets have finished among the Top 5 in rebounding in the NBA eight of the last 13 seasons. The list of big men he has coached includes Hakeem Olajuwon, Moses Malone, Ralph Sampson, Elvin Hayes, Rudy Tomjanovich, Otis Thorpe, Rodney McCray, Billy Paultz, Larry Smith and Robert Horry. Dawson is the only one to have been a member of both coaching staffs that led the Rockets to the NBA Finals in 1981 and 1986. Houston and the Lakers were the only Western Conference teams to make it to the NBA Finals in the 1980s. A "True Texan", Dawson hails from Alba, population 200, about 75 miles east of Dallas. As a 6-foot-5 center he led Alba High to an incredible 44-3 record as a senior. He then went on to win Junior College All-America honors at Paris, TX, under Head Coach Boyd Converse. He was inducted into the Paris Hall of Fame in 1991. Dawson earned All-Southwest Conference honors at Baylor his senior season (1960) when he averaged 16.4 points, and 8.8 rebounds. Dawson, who led Bill Henderson's Baylor Bears in scoring and rebounding both seasons, averaged 13.3 points and 7.3 rebounds his junior year. In 1963 he returned to Baylor as an assistant to Head Coach Bill Menefee. He succeeded Menefee as head coach in 1973 and remained for 3 1/2 seasons. Dallas Cowboys' executive Gil Brandt hired Dawson as a scout for the football team, but a year later Dawson entered the business world as a salesman for Converse Shoe Company. He ranks among the top golfers in the coaching profession. Dawson and his wife Terry Elizabeth reside in Houston (they were married in September 1993). Mrs. Dawson knows basketball--she was a star player for Texas A&I University -- she has a daughter (Mary Elizabeth, 11).

BILL BERRY*Assistant Coach

Starting second full season with Rockets. He was hired Feb. 23, 1992. Berry, who had been scouting college and NBA games for the Rockets in 1991-92, was an assistant coach and scout for the Sacramento Kings two seasons (1989-91). Prior to that he was head coach at San Jose State (1979-89), the No. 1 assistant coach at Michigan State (1977-79), an assistant coach at Cal-Berkeley (1972-77), head coach at Cosumnes River Junior College (1970-72), head coach at Highlands High School (Sacramento, 1966-69). He lettered three seasons at Michigan State (1961-64, the head coach was Forddy Anderson, where he earned his master's degree in physical education in 1969. Berry compiled the second highest win total in San Jose State history as he had a 142-144 record in 10 seasons. He turned the Spartans' program around immediately as he guided them to a 17-12 record in his first season (they were 7-20 in 1978-79), winning the Big West Conference Tournament and a berth in the NCAA Tournament. The Spartans went 21-9 his second season, making it to the conference championship game, and an NIT berth. San Jose State has been to postseason action only three times (NCAA or NIT) and Berry led them there twice. The Spartans were known for their defensive prowess during Berry's tenure. SJS finished in the Top 20 in scoring defense three seasons (highest ranking was fifth in 1980-81, 56.6). The Spartans were in the Top 25 in FG percentage defense four consecutive seasons (1984-88). He was Jud Heathcote's top aide when the Michigan State Spartans won two Big Ten championships and the NCAA championship (1979) behind the brilliant play of Earvin Johnson, Greg Kelser and Jay Vincent. Berry, born Feb. 19, 1942, is married (wife Clarice) and they have a daughter (Pam).

JOHN KILLILEAAssistant Coach/Player Personnel

Killilea, who joined the Rockets Aug. 1, 1988, brings 19 years of NBA experience into his job of scouting the college and pro teams (five with the Rockets). Killilea was an assistant coach for Boston, Milwaukee and New Jersey (1971-85); he retired after the 1984-85 season for one year and then returned as head coach of the CBA's Topeka Sizzlers the last two seasons. Boston won five division titles and two NBA championships in Killilea's six seasons (1974, 1976 championships). He was responsible for recommending Larry Bird to Red Auerbach (Killilea had seen Bird play as a sophomore at Indiana State). Then he joined Milwaukee's Don Nelson as assistant coach and assistant director of player personnel from 1977-78 to 1982-83—the Bucks won four division championships in his last four seasons. Then he spent two seasons with New Jersey (Stan Albeck was the head coach)—in 1984 the Nets eliminated the defending NBA champion Philadelphia 76ers from the playoffs. Prior to joining the Celtics Killilea coached 18 years at five high schools in Maine and Massachusetts, compiling a 325-85 record (.793). His teams won six state championships in nine visits to the playoffs. He was voted Maine coach of the year (1957), and is a member of both the Maine Hall of Fame (1975) and Massachusetts Basketball Hall of Fame (1976). During his last two years as a high school coach he also found time to do some scouting on a parttime basis for Milwaukee Bucks' coach Larry Costello. A 1952 Boston University graduate, Killilea also holds a Master's Degree in Educational Administration from Salem (MA) State. Recognized as one of the game's premier clinicians, he has conducted camps and coaching sessions throughout the world the last 20 years. He and his wife Eli reside in Brookfield, WI.

Prior to joining Houston, Melchiorre spent eight seasons with Boston, six with the Buffalo Braves and two with the Pittsburgh Condors (ABA). His flexibility program resulted in a dramatic reduction of muscle strains and related injuries over his tenure with Boston—the Celtics won three NBA titles during this time. He was only the fifth trainer in the 43-year history of the Celtics. The Philadelphia native is a 1970 graduate of Bethel (McKenzie, TN) College, where he was head trainer and baseball coach for four years. Known as Mr. Mean for his tenacious rebounding style during his 13-season NBA career, Smith played nine seasons for Golden State (1980-89), three for Houston (1989-92) and one for San Antonio (1992-93). He is fourth on the NBA's all-time offensive rebounding list (3,401), and 31st on NBA's all-time overall rebounding list (8,125). The Alcorn State graduate averaged 9.2 rebounds in 883 games. Smith, who earned a Business Administration Masters from Alcorn State, finished among the Top 10 rebounders in the league five times (1980-82, 1984-87). He averaged better than eight rebounds per game in 10 of 13 seasons, including 10+ five times. 1992-93 MONTH-BY-MONTH

NOVEMBER 7-4

Houston found itself in first place at the end of November for only the second time in franchise history (the Rockets were 13-6, Denver 12-6 in November 1985)--despite starting the season with All-Star forward Otis Thorpe and his backup Tod Murphy on the injured list, Vernon Maxwell missing all or parts of seven games, plus many questions surrounding newcomers and unproven veterans....Houston, which won six straight games after being swept by Seattle in Japan to start the season, reached the top spot in the Midwest Division with defense....the Rockets led the league in blocks per game (9.1)...they ranked second in points allowed (96.5) and FG percentage defense (.431)....Hakeem Olajuwon paced Houston, averaging 23.2 points (9th NBA), 14.7 rebounds (2nd NBA) and 5.3 blocks (1st NBA)--his rebounding and blocked shot averages are the best after 11 games in his nine-season career....rookie Robert Horry, the first Rockets' rookie to start on a regular basis since Olajuwon (1984-85), averaged 12.6 points, 7.0 rebounds and 2.0 blocks (10th NBA)....the only forward in the NBA with a better blocked shot average is Larry Nance; only two rookie forwards have ever ranked in the Top 10 (Terry Tyler 1978-79, Roy Hinson 1983-84)....Carl Herrera filled in for Thorpe, holding five of the eight forwards he guarded below their scoring averages (Karl Malone, Danny Manning, Larry Nance, Antoine Carr and Kevin Willis)....Kenny Smith led Houston in assists, 6.8.... backup point guard Scott Brooks helped spark Houston to six wins--playing the entire fourth quarter in each game (he averaged 5 points and 3 assists in the fourth quarter of these games)....Matt Bullard came off the bench to average 10.6 points and 5.1 rebounds....Sleepy Floyd was the Rockets' second leading scorer, averaging 13.9 points--he replaced Maxwell in the starting lineup and averaged 18.7 points in six starts.

DECEMBER 7-7

The Rockets went 7-7, which is the third straight month they have not had a losing record....Houston started the final month of 1992 by winning six of the first nine games, only to lose four of the last five....the highlight of the month came Dec. 11 at Chicago as Houston dumped the two-time NBA champions, 110-96, behind Hakeem Olajuwon's 28 points and 13 reboundsit was Houston's second win in its last three trips to Chicago Stadium....the lowlight came at the end of the month as the Rockets became part of league history in a 133-110 loss at Phoenix on Dec. 30--the Suns finished December 14-0, the third best undefeated mark for one month in NBA history....ironically, the Rockets were the last team to win the first 13 games in one month (March 1991) before the Suns earned win No. 14....Olajuwon paced Houston in December, averaging 25.8 points, 11.1 rebounds and 2.9 blocks, while shooting .526 (142-270) from the field--he shot below .500 in only three games....Kenny Smith was Houston's assist leader, 4.6.

JANUARY 10-7

January 1993 will go down in Rockets' history as a month for all seasons....Houston finished 10-7, the first time since March 1991 (14-1) it has won 10 or more games in one month--the 10th time in franchise history....the Rockets had an eight-game winning streak during the month--their longest overall winning streak since March 1991 (13)....the month's overall record may not seem spectacular, but when you look closely at the caliber and breadth of the schedule, January 1993 may go down as one of the best in franchise history....first, the Rockets played all four division leaders, defeating three (Utah, New York, Chicago)....second, Houston played 17 games (9 on the road) in 29 days --there was never more than one day in between any game....third, at one point the Rockets played six games (Jan. 18-26) in nine days in six different cities and three time zones (Pacific, Central, Eastern)--winning four times....the 17 games is the most Houston has played in one month since March 1987 (18)....nine of the first 10 games were against teams with winning records. Houston started January 1993 with a five-game losing streak, then reeled off eight straight wins on its way to finishing 10-2....the Rockets' biggest wins were against Utah (97-90), New York (104-102) and Chicago (94-83)....Houston swept its season series with Chicago and is 5-1 vs the two-time defending NBA champions over the last three seasons (1990-93)--the best record in the NBA vs Chicago during this time....Hakeem Olajuwon averaged 26.1 points, 12.7 rebounds and 4.0 blocks to earn NBA Player of the Month honors....Kenny Smith averaged 5.3 assists to lead Houston in that department....over the last 12 games of January the Rockets out-scored the opposition 104.2 to 99.3, shot .503 from the field including .422 from 3-PT range, and .775 from the line; they out-rebounded the opposition 43.0 to 40.4.

FEBRUARY 9-3

For the second time in three seasons Houston finished February with a 9-3 record--the best record in the Western Conference....the Rockets, who finished the month with a six-game winning streak, won 19 of their last 24 games to move into second place in the Midwest Division....this was the third time the Rockets have won six or more consecutive games in 1992-93--a franchise first....during this streak Houston put together a string of wins unmatched in NBA history--since the advent of the 24-second clock in 1954-55--by winning four consecutive games by 27 points or more each....the Rockets beat Philadelphia by 38 (149-111), and Boston by 35 (119-84) before the All-Star break--then came back to earn their first ever win in Utah's Delta Center by 27 (105-78) on Feb. 23 (the fewest points scored by Utah at home in 13 seasons)....Houston finished the streak with a 27-point win over Phoenix on Feb. 25 in The Summit....the Rockets are the 10th team to have won four or more games by 20+ each (Portland and Milwaukee had five-game streaks)--none of the others were against three teams with winning records....once again Hakeem Olajuwon led the way by averaging 23.4 points, 13.4 rebounds, 4.9 blocks, 4.4 assists and 1.4 steals....Kenny Smith averaged 14.5 points and a team-high 6.3 assists per game....Carl Herrera (11.3 points and 7.0 rebounds) and Scott Brooks (7.2 points and 3.0 assists) provided a boost from the bench--both shot better than 61 percent from the field....Otis Thorpe averaged 13 points and 10 rebounds; Vernon Maxwell averaged 12.2 points, Robert Horry 10.7 points....Houston out-scored the opposition 111.7 to 100.5, out-rebounded the opponents 46.3 to 42.7 and out-shot them from the field, .512 to .448 including .363 to .239 from 3-PT range.

MARCH 11-4

Houston went 11-4 in March to take over first place in the Midwest Division....on March 1 the Rockets found themselves in second place in the Midwest Division, trailing San Antonio by 2-1/2 games....Houston caught San Antonio on March 6 and remained there for the rest of the season....this is the first time the Rockets have been in first place in March since 1986--and they became the first team to win a division title after being in third place at the All-Star break (that's since 1970-71 when divisional play began)....this is the third time out of the last four seasons the Rockets have been hot in March--they were a franchise-record 14-1 in 1991, 11-5 in 1990....Houston became the 12th team in NBA history to win 15 straight games (only the fifth since 1971-72) after winning its first nine games in March....the Rockets were 5-1 in The Summit and 6-3 on the road during the season's fifth month....one key reason for most of the Rockets' success was defense--they out-scored the opposition 100.0 to 93.3, and held the opponents to a .444 mark from the field....Houston held Washington to an NBA season-low 69 points (the Rockets had 90) on March 26 in the Capital Centre. The Rockets have held six teams to a season low this season....Hakeem Olajuwon once again paced the Rockets by averaging 26.7 points, 13.3 rebounds, 4.1 assists, 3.6 blocks and 2.2 steals, while shooting .525 (158-301) from the field and .824 (84-102) from the line....Kenny Smith added 14.3 points and 4.9 assists, while shooting .911 (51-56) from the line....Vernon Maxwell led the team in assists, averaging 5.3 to go along with 13.3 ppg.

APRIL 11-2

Least Defensive Rebounds at The Summit — 13, New Jersey (Jan. 3, 1979)

MARCH 1991: ROCKETS FINISH 14-1

MARCH 1991: Houston turned up the defensive pressure and came away with not only the best month in franchise history, but one of the best in league history...the Rockets set three franchise records — longest winning streak (13), most wins in one month (14) and best road record for one month (6-1)...the 14-1 mark equals the eighth best record for one month in NBA history (see chart), and since 1973 only six teams have played a minimum of 15 games and lost once...the Rockets out-scored the opposition 108.6-99.1, limiting nine opponents to less than 100 points including the Lakers and Chicago on the road...Houston shot .480 from the field, the opponents .444...the Rockets won the battle of the boards 46.5-44.1...the highlights of the month included road wins vs the Lakers, Chicago, Phoenix and Atlanta...six players averaged 12+ points led by Kenny Smith's 20.8 mark...Otis Thorpe averaged 18.4 points, 10.4 rebounds and shot .618 from the field; Hakeem Olajuwon averaged 17.1 points, 12.1 rebounds and 4 blocks...here's a look at the top monthly records in NBA history:

The "Greatest Rocket of Them All" enjoyed the greatest moment of his life on May 10, 1993 when he was inducted into the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame.

"My only dream was that I wanted to start for my high school basketball team, the Norwalk High School Bears," said Murphy, who played his entire NBA career with the Rockets (1970-83). "Going to the Hall of Fame now is beyond my wildest dreams."

Other members of the Hall of Fame Class of 1993: Julius Erving, Bill Walton, Dan Issel, Walt Bellamy, Dick McGuire, Ann Meyers (UCLA) and Ulyana Serenyonova (Soviet Olympic Team).

Murphy, the Rockets' all-time leading scorer, is the third Rocket to earn this honor (Rick Barry 1986, Elvin Hayes 1989)—he is the first with ties to the franchise for an entire career to do so. The 45-year-old native of Norwalk, Conn., is third on the all-time NBA free throw percentage list (.892). He holds the NBA record for best free throw percentage in one season (.958, 206-215, 1980-81), and held the NBA record for most consecutive free throws made (78, Dec. 27, 1980 - Feb. 20, 1981) until Micheal Williams of Minnesota made 84 straight at the end of the 1992-93 season. He averaged in double figures in every season he played organized basketball from high school (Norwalk) to college (Niagara Purple Eagles) to the NBA.

The Rockets' all-time leading scorer (17,949 points) is in his fourth season as analyst for all Houston road telecasts on KTXH-TV 20, and in his third for all Houston home telecasts by Home Sports Entertainment (HSE). Murphy works in community relations for the Rockets and Houston Rockets Charities, handling charitable service activities and marketing. He also runs the Texas Youth Academy. The Academy is an organization where youngsters (6-19-years-old) can congregate for sports, educational development, counseling and other youth activities. Programming is year-round to provide after-school, weekend and summer activities. He also conducts clinics worldwide for the NBA. His highly energized presentations have thrilled children around the world. Murphy, who returned to work for the Rockets on Feb. 3, 1989, also holds the single-game record for most points scored, 57 vs New Jersey on March 18, 1978.

Murphy, 5-foot-9, is 32nd on the all-time NBA scoring list for total points--15th in scoring average for those playing a minimum of 1,000 games. Murphy, who still owns the Rockets' record for most total assists (4,402), has the 20th best field goal percentage among NBA guards who have scored at least 10,000 points (.482).

Murphy led the NBA in free throw percentage twice (1980-81, 1982-83), and finished among the Top Five nine other times. Murphy (5) and Rick Barry (7) are the only two players in league history to have shot .900 or better from the line in five or more seasons.

He is also one of only two Rockets (Hakeem Olajuwon is the other) to rank among the Top 10 in four statistical categories in one season. He was second in assists (7.4) and free throw percentage (.868), fourth in field goal percentage (.522) and ninth in steals (1.94) in 1973-74—Calvin was also 20th in scoring (20.4).

The San Diego Rockets selected Murphy with the 18th pick in the second round in 1970. The former Niagara University star went on to earn first team All-NBA rookie honors and finished fourth in the Rookie-of-the-Year balloting (other first team members were Pete Maravich, Bob Lanier, Dave Cowens and Geoff Petrie). Rudy Tomjanovich, the Rockets' 1970 first-round choice and second player selected overall, and Murphy are the only two players to have their numbers retired in Rockets' history (Murphy 23, Tomjanovich 45).

Murphy's greatest single season was 1977-78 when he averaged 25.6 points in 78 games. He scored 40+ points three times, 30-39 points in 20 games, 20-29 points in 33 games. He averaged better than 20 points in five seasons, three consecutive (1977-80).

Murphy scored better than 40 points seven times during the regular season in his NBA career—only Elvin Hayes (25), Moses Malone (22) and Hakeem Olajuwon (11) have had more 40+ games in Rockets' history.

The one-time NBA All-Star (1979), had one of the most brilliant careers in NCAA Division I history. He was a three-time consensus All-America (first team 1968-70, second team 1967-68). Murphy averaged 33.1 points in 77 games—still the fourth best average in Division I history (Pete Maravich of LSU 44.2, Austin Carr of Notre Dame 34.6, Oscar Robertson of Cincinnati 33.8). His 68 points on Dec. 7, 1968 vs Syracuse is still the third best mark vs a Division I opponent. He scored 30 or more points in 42 of the 77 games he played for Niagara, 30-39 points 23 times, 40-49 points on 13 occasions and 50+ six times.

ROCKETS' COACHING FRATERNITY

There are five former Rockets serving as head coaches in the NBA....Rick Adelman (Portland), Mike Dunleavy (Milwaukee), John Lucas (San Antonio), Pat Riley (New York) and Rudy T....all five coaches' records are .500 or better (Adelman is 244-119, Dunleavy 129-119, Riley 644-247, Lucas 39-22 and Rudy T, 71-41....Riley was the 1992-93 NBA Coach of the Year in balloting by the media, edging Tomjanovich by one vote....Tomjanovich was The Sporting News NBA Coach of the Year in voting by the coaches....Tomjanovich (April), Dunleavy (November) and Lucas (January) were selected NBA Coach of the Month in 1992-93....Adelman, Dunleavy and Riley have taken their teams to the NBA Finals....four of the five were Rockets' draft selections--Adelman was a 1968 seventh-round draft pick (79th), Lucas was the first player taken in the 1976 draft, Riley was the 7th player drafted in 1967 and the Rockets' first draft pick; Tomjanovich was the second pick in the 1970 draft....Dunleavy was signed as a free agent....oh yes, there are two more head coaches: Ralph Sampson (Fargo-Moorhead, CBA--he's also owner and GM) and Rick Barry (Fort Wayne Fury, CBA)....one former Rockets' head coach is now the No. 1 man at Detroit--Don Chaney....Tex Winter, the Houston Rockets' first coach, is an assistant at Chicago....three other former Rocket players are assistant coaches (Dave Wohl at LA Clippers, Lionel Hollins at Phoenix, Robert Reid at Washington).

ROCKETS IN THE COMMUNITY

Someone once said, "There is a loftier ambition than to merely stand tall in the world. It is to stoop down and lift a child a little higher." This statement could be the motto of the Houston Rockets' community services department.

The Rockets take seriously the responsibility to give back to the community that supports the team. In November 1991, the Rockets established Houston Rockets Charities to serve as the nonprofit arm of the organization. Our goal is to generate support for disabled and disadvantaged children's charities in the Houston area. Players, coaches, front office staff and all members of the Rockets' family are recruited to help.

The foundation gives us a focus and maximizes our efforts to improve the lives of people in our local community. We receive more than 100 requests each week from groups representing some very worthy causes. Once again this season, the primary focus of Houston Rockets' Charities will be on children. Under the leadership of new owner Leslie L. Alexander, the Rockets' have pledged $250,000 in game tickets for the 1993-94 season to disadvantaged children in the Houston area. Here are some of the top programs that the community services department will administer in 1993-94:

BOOSTER SHOTS

The Rockets mascot Booster makes appearances with the Department of Health to remind parents to get their children immunization shots. Booster also makes hospital and school visits year round.

GOLF TOURNAMENT

The largest fundraising effort of the season. Current and former players and coaches participate in this one-day event. This fundraiser will benefit Big Brothers and Sisters of Houston.

TIPOFF LUNCHEON

A luncheon involving all Rockets players and coaches previewing the upcoming season. Texas Special Olympics will be the beneficiary of this event.

NBA STAY IN SCHOOL PROGRAM

The NBA, its teams, players and coaches share a commitment to supporting and improving the quality of life in their communities. On the national and local levels, the NBA and its 27 teams are involved in many public service initiatives.

Since 1989, the NBA and the National Basketball Players Association have worked together to address the drop-out crisis through the NBA Stay In School program. Created to urge students to graduate from high school, the program uses the popularity of NBA players and coaches to stress the importance of attitude, attendance and achievement in school, and to encourage young people to develop pride and self-esteem. NBA Hall of Famer Bob Lanier serves as National Chairman of the NBA Stay in School program.

Through public service announcements on TV and radio and other awareness-building programs, the NBA and its players also support the work of the Special Olympics, CARE, the National Committee to Prevent Child Abuse, and Operation Prom/Graduation, a program that encourages high school seniors to celebrate an alcohol-free prom and graduation season.

The NBA creates PSA programs in honor of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., in January and Black History Month each February, and has produced PSAs on behalf of the Retinitis Pigmentosa Foundation to fight blindness. The league and its teams also address the importance of early detection in the treatment of breast cancer, in the "NBA Wives Save Lives" program.

TEXAS' OWN "DREAM TEAM" NEEDS VOLUNTEERS

A quarter century ago, people in Houston had a dream. Basketball fans wanted an NBA team to call their own and persons with mental retardation dreamed of imitating their hoop heroes.

The Houston Rockets came along in 1971, fulfilling the first dream and assisting with the development of the other. Rockets' stars from years gone by -- Elvin Hayes, Moses Malone, Mike Newlin, Robert Reid and Hall of Famer Calvin Murphy just to name a few -- have given their time and effort, levelling the basketball playing court while Special Olympians honed their roundball skills.

You don't have to be an NBA player, however, to volunteer for Texas Special Olympics. It doesn't matter if you're a brick layer from the free throw line, an air ball specialist from three-point range or a lifelong member of the "All-Earth" team. Special Olympians in Houston need assistance in endeavors other than their athletic pursuits.

Volunteers are needed to "assist" with and organize events, "distribute" newsletters, "stuff" mailings and "stroke" the fundraising "J." If playing an important role on a championship caliber team appeals to you, then please call Texas Special Olympics at (713) 270-7992.

Our poster child.

Our poster child won't look up at you with sad eyes. He can't tell you of his pain. The sad fact is: SIDS doesn't have a poster child. Sudden Infant Death Syndrome (SIDS) strikes too quickly. It silently kills over 7,000 babies each year. Without warning.

It's the number one cause of death in infants from one week to one year old.

These children are seemingly healthy and die for no apparent reason. There is no way to predict SIDS. No way to prevent it. Not yet.

But there is hope. Hope through understanding and research. Please help us. Give of your time, of your dollars. You can make a difference. Your donations won't buy a wheelchair or a brace. but they could buy a cure.
